

Rights and Responsibilities of Volunteers

Rights	Responsibilities
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● To be treated as a co-worker● To be given a suitable assignment● To receive information about the organization● To receive an orientation to the organization● To receive feedback● To be heard● To be treated with dignity and respect● To be given the opportunity to provide feedback● To understand the roles of staff members	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● To maintain confidentiality● To be loyal to the agency and community● To maintain the dignity and integrity of the community service with the public● To carry out duties promptly and reliably● To accept the guidance and decisions of the volunteer coordinators● To demonstrate a willingness to learn and participate in orientation, training and meetings● To know and understand the policies that exists in the agency● To develop an open and honest relationship with staff members